The Monthly Busey

By Leif

Welcome back to the Monthly Busey, ladies and gentlemen: it's been a while, and I am pleased to announce that I've conducted another interview. This time I caught up with Coach during his 7th period gym class and asked him the following:

Leif: How long have you been working here?

Coach: About ten to eleven years.

Leif: What made you start working here?

Coach: They were looking for a Physical Education teacher and I had just left the Catholic School.

Leif: What is your favorite sport or activity to teach?

Coach: My favorite sports are wrestling and MMA; I enjoy participating in them. My favorite subject to teach is Health class.

Leif: What other places have you worked at?

Coach: I've worked at Longwood, Centereach, Newfield, LaSalle Military Academy, and St. Patrick's School.

Leif: What do you think of Little Flower?

Coach: It's gone from a family oriented place to a more business-oriented place.

Leif: Do you teach other physical activities outside the school?

Coach: I do personal training and MMA training.

Leif: What music do you think is good for a workout?

Coach: The heavier, the better.

Leif: What would be your vision of a perfect gym at Little Flower?

Coach: There'd be a weight room, a track, and a mat room.

Uwe Boll is a terrible director; he makes Michael Bay look like Steven Spielberg.
