Look out for On the Spot Incentives

Student Leadership Advisors

by Charlene

That time already? On the spot incentives are this month! Keep your grades & behavior up for your incentive. Also keep an eye out for your report card, they were due November 6th, so report cards should be out by now.

A big hand to our student leadership advisors: Ms Danielle Williams - captain of the school activity board, Ms Kristen Kestal - captain of advertising, Ms Janet Slote - captain of the newsletter committee and Ms Josie Bailey - captain of activity planning.

Remember to donate canned goods and non-perishable foods for families in need to our food drive in the front lobby of the school.

Coming Soon: "The Big Adventures of Little Flower

by: Emily and Alex

Just another day at Little Flower. Until, the abandoned Shoreham Nuclear Power Plant's leftover plutonium activates. Everyone at LF gets super powers that brings out the true superhero in themselves. Wait, but what is a good comic without villains? Well intruders have been affected negatively and are trying to destroy the good of LF. But will they be defeated??? Find out in our first issue!

Presidential Election 2016

by Alex

There are 16 Republicans, 7 democrats and 1 third party candidate. The republicans are Jeb Bush, Ben Carson, Chris Christie, Ted Cruz, Carly Fiorina, Jim Gilmore, Lindsey Graham, Mike Huckabee, Bobby Jindal, John Kasich, George Pataki, Rand Paul, Marco Rubio, Rick Santorum, and Donald Trump.

The Democrats are Hillary Clinton, Martin O'Malley, Bernie Sanders, Lawrence Lessing, Joe Biden, Lincoln Chafee, and Jim Webb. Lastly the Third-Party candidate is Jill Stein. As of Friday, November 13th the 3 top Republicans candidates in the Pollster Trend are:

- 1 - Donald Trump 27.9%
- 2 - Ben Carson 20.1%
- 3 - Marco Rubio 13.2%

The 3 top Democratic candidates are:

- 1 - Hillary Clinton 56.1%
- 2 - Bernie Sanders 31.7%
- 3 - Martin O'Malley 2.6% Who? That's low

Well that is your update on the election and with your votes (if you are old enough). YOU can help decide the next President of the United States of America. That's all the time we have for now, ????????

The November Busey

by Leif

Welcome back to the Monthly Busey, the newsletter column that has ~~rapidly declined in quality provided~~ provided information on various topics for your reading pleasure. This month's interviewee is Mr Akkhopol Huse I caught up with him during one of his math classes.

Merrow: Where are you originally from?

Huse: Bangkok, Thailand

Merrow: What was it like there?

Huse: I liked it, it's very hot

Merrow: What other places have you been to?

Huse: Singapore, Mexico, Canada, South Korea, Laos, Cambodia, Hong Kong and 45 of the 50 U.S. states.

Merrow: What did you go to school for?

Huse: Nuclear Physics, but I came out with a Math degree, it was too much science.

Merrow: What made you interested in that?

Huse: I always wanted to work in space technologies, I always thought the world was too small.

Merrow: What other subjects do you teach?

Huse: All Math subjects and home tech

Merrow: What is your favorite subject?

Huse: I like to teach Geometry.

Merrow: How is it being a teacher?

Huse: I like the aspect of teaching, I enjoy it; I'm wearing many hats.

Merrow: What do you like best about working at Little Flower?

Huse: The population here, if you take things lightly it's a great day.

Merrow: Any advice you'd like to give to the readers?

Huse: Yes, stop being a baby.
